Navy Yard Investigations.

The Times Philadelphia special says the sub-committee on navy expenditures will conclude their labors to-morrow. The testimony will make 1700 pages of printed matter. The investigations have covered nearly every navy yard in the country, and the opposition management of navy yards for three years. Several naval officers are implicated in questionable transactions, as well as parties in the department. The wanton destruction of property was such that glycerine might as well have been exploded in the buildings at first.

Fires.

Paterson, N. J., April 22.—The Arcade burned last night, involving a loss on the building and occupants of $75,000; insured for $22,000.

Indianapolis, April 22.—Intelligence has been received in this city this morning that the Methodist camp meeting grounds at Tarentum, Pa., has been destroyed by fire. The fire broke out about 12 o'clock last night. The cottages were all frames. The flames spread with frightful rapidity. The Tarentum grounds have been owned by the Methodists of this vicinity for many years, and the cottages belonging to members of the church in this city are numerous. The ground probably contained one hundred and fifty cottages, which were generally of four or five rooms, of neat architecture designs, and many completely furnished, except bed clothing. The only building saved, according to present advices, is the Camp Hotel. The fire will prove a very disastrous one, and will very seriously interfere with the arrangements for the national camp meeting announced to be held on the grounds in August. The origin of the fire is at present unknown, but supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Loss, $60,000; insurance, $20,000.

Wadsworth, Ohio, April 22.—Chandler Bros.' machine shops, located here, burned at 3 o'clock this morning. The fire is supposed to have originated in the boiler room. The loss is estimated at $30,000; insured for $26,000.

Its liabilities are about $80,000; deposits $60,000, which the directors have loaned. Its assets amount to $[illegible],000, besides $15,000 in judgment notes which are of some account. There are 600 depositors, mostly Scandinavians, who the directors affirm will receive nearly, if not quite, dollar for dollar. It has been in feeble condition for a long time.

Davenport's Testimony.

Washington, April 22.—John I. Davenport, U. S. Supervisor of Elections at New York, resumed his evidence to-day before the committee on expenses in the Department of Justice. He explained the frauds committed under the form of naturalization. He was paid for the work of preparing affidavits in several cases of fraud as any other supervisor was paid. He issued warrants in 1872 for 1,200 registered persons, believing they had no existence. Adjourned.

Appropriation for Food for Indians.

Washington, April 22.—The House committee on Indian affairs to-day agreed to recommend an immediate appropriation of $50,000 to provide subsistence for the Arizona Indians, whom Gen. Sheridan reports as being driven to depredations by their absolute need of supplies.

Col. Whitely's Opinion of the Indictment against Him.

Col. Whitely says the indictment found against him by the grand jury of the district for complicity in the safe burglary conspiracy is not worth the paper it is written on. He has in his possession a letter from the Attorney General written at the suggestion of the chairman of the judiciary committee, Hon. J. Proctor Knott, giving him immunity for any of those matters in which he acted as the mere agent of others. He says he has had a conversation with the Attorney General, who expressed this opinion, and that previous to coming to this city he consulted with competent legal authority on the questions involved. He says his immunity was not a contract that he should convict Babcock, Harrington or any of the others, but that he would tell the whole story, keeping back nothing, which he intends to do when the proper time arrives.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Important Clerical Error Corrected.

Washington, April 22.—The law allowing private advances of the cost of government surveys to be credited when payment is made for lands was rendered void in the revised statutes by the codifiers referring to the wrong section. Many California settlers and town sites entries have therefore been refused any allowance for moneys thus advanced. Sargent two days ago secured the passage by the Senate of his bill to correct this error, and Page yesterday put it through the House. It will therefore become law as soon as it is signed by the President.

Amendment to the Bill Extending the Time for Completing the Texas Pacific Railroad.

Luttrell of the House railroad committee has offered the following amendment to Throckmorton's proposition to extend the time for the completion of the Texas Pacific R. R., which the latter offered as a rider to the pending bill for extension of the time of completion of the Northern Pacific R. R.: A proviso that all settlers now located on lands heretofore granted to the Texas Pacific R. R. may enter the same under pre-emption or homestead laws, and all pre-emptioners now located on said lands shall pay into the public treasury the minimum price of $1 25 per acre, and all persons who shall settle on the same hereafter shall pay the double minimum price of $2 50 per acre, the proceeds to be paid by the United States to said company upon the completion of the company's terminus railway; and provides further that said company shall commence the construction of said road from San Diego eastward within one year from the passage of this act, and construct not less than thirty miles before the expiration of the first year, and not less than thirty miles in a continuous line each year thereafter until a junction [illegible]

The Slanders against Blaine not Alarming.

Washington, April [illegible].—Blaine's friends [illegible] [illegible] alarm [illegible] [illegible] his chances for the presidency by slander. [illegible] he will soon overwhelm his assailant with a vindication which will [illegible] in his favor.

Statement concerning Appropriations for Carson Mint Pronounced Erroneous.

Dir. [illegible] Linderman's telegram to a Virginia City journal that the necessary appropriation for Carson Mint had been agreed upon is pronounced utterly erroneous by Congressman Woodburn, and an appropriation will be made for the salaries of the superintendent and the other officers, but even the small increase of $[illegible],000 passed in the appropriation committee in the accounts [illegible] reported for wages and materials will not, according to present intimations of chairman Randall, be granted. He says these items will not be materially increased. Woodburn will move in the House for an increase of $[illegible],000 to bring it up to the full amount of last year. He says Linderman's recommendation before the committee for the continuance of coinage at Carson Mint was of a most feeble character.

Eloquent and Effective Speech by Mr. Lane.

One of the most eloquent and effective speeches in advocacy of the transfer of the Indian bureau to the war department was that of Representative Lane of Oregon. He argued that the transfer to army management would tend to maintain peace, secure additional protection to the lives and property of our citizens, reduce the expenses of government, and in no wise injuriously affect, even if it did not improve, the condition of the Indians. While discussing the question of economy he dexterously called attention to the vast amount of good which a portion of the money thus saved could effect by opening the navigation of the Columbia and improving the harbors of the coast, so as to develop the natural wealth and manifold resources of Oregon. He administered a severe rebuke to [illegible] of New York for aspersing the character of frontiersmen. He eulogized their gallantry, magnanimity and intelligence, vividly depicted the horrors of Indian barbarities in Oregon and Utah, and showed the justness of the complaints against the present system of Indian management. Lane also showered ridicule on [illegible] of his observations of the French policy at Algeria, and his sentimentality concerning the noble red men of the forest, and attributed it to a studious perusal of Cooper's romances and his experience as a [illegible] chieftain. This witty and forcible extemporaneous speech has given him high rank among the debaters of the House.

Luttrell's Speech.

Luttrell's speech advocating the bill dealt largely with the abuses which he stated had come under his own observation in California. He detailed the frauds which have been publicly charged there as perpetrated by the Round Valley and Hoopa agents, and asserted that the large appropriations made by Congress for the Klamath and other Indians had never reached them, and described the swindles in blankets, etc., practiced on the Modocs before their outbreak. Even where they are honest, he considered nine out of ten Indian agents not competent business men, and for these and other reasons earnestly advocated placing the Indian management under military control.

Page said that despite the request of the legislature he could not favor the bill, and that it had not been shown that it would save the government a dollar. On the contrary, supplies are purchased more cheaply under the present board of Indian commissioners than they are obtained by the army. The treatment of Indians by the military would be less humane, and their civilization retarded. This was the testimony of the civilized Indians of the Indian Territory and the opinion of the better class of thinking men throughout the country, as the discontinuance of the present peace policy, added as it is by the military power, would lead to hostilities and endanger and interrupt the overland railroad. The enactment of the bill meant simply injustice to the Indians and their speedy extinction.

All the Pacific coast members except Page will vote for the passage of the bill.

Postoffice Appropriation.

Washington, April 21.—The postoffice appropriation has been agreed upon. The amount is thirty-three millions—about three and a half millions less than last year.

Emma Mine Investigation.

Trenor W. Park testified before the foreign relations committee to-day that by the purchase and sale of stock of the Emma mine in 1872 the amount of £[illegible] was realized. According to his understanding, General Schenck was entitled to one half, but Schenck refused to take more than £[illegible]. Schenck's interest [illegible] [illegible] shares.

General Schenck [illegible] a statement showing that his investments on account of the Emma mine aggregate £[illegible]. It shows that the amount of stock has received dividends, [illegible] as follows: Dividends [illegible] months [illegible] 1871 and 1872 [illegible] 47 original shares £[illegible] total $11,[illegible], leaving a clear loss, as nearly as can be estimated, on the number of $11,000.

The examination of the subject is now closed with the exception of receipts of certain papers from London in connection with it, and the committee adjourned until a week Tuesday week.

Pacific Railroad Bill being Considered.

Washington, April 22.—The House committee on Pacific railroads to-day resumed consideration of the Senate bill to extend the time for completing the Northern Pacific road, and of the proposition offered by Senator [illegible] as an amendment to extend the time also for the Texas Pacific Co. The committee adjourned without action till next Wednesday.

Apaches on the War Path.

The Secretary of War has transmitted to the House information that the Apaches at Camp Bowie, Arizona, have broken away from the reservation there and are going toward Sonora, having killed several persons and stolen cattle. Also that the Apaches are leaving Canada Alamosa and stealing cattle because there is no food or supplies for the Indian agencies, and they must leave or starve. There is no game in the country, and the military are prohibited from issuing provisions to the Indians. Gen. Pope, who furnished the above information, says the cavalry in that region are in the field, but have only power to see the Indians to starve peacefully, or kill off violently. The dispatch of Gen. Schofield reports the killing of two men by Chiricahua Indians, and their pursuit by troops, and says that Gov. Safford, of Arizona, believes the whole tribe has broken out. The commissioner of Indian affairs submits an estimate of fifty thousand dollars for the purchase of subsistence supplies for above named Indians, in order that they may return to their reservation.

Platt Testifies about Moth Preventives.

Washington, April 22.—Hon. Platt was before Clymer's committee to-day and testified that he used his influence with the Secretary of War to have Cowles & Fogg's moth preventives used in the army, and gave them all the standing which he had in the war department. They agreed to give him ten per cent of the gross receipts, and afterwards raised it to 15 per cent. He thinks he may have received about $1,000 a year, or about $5,000 for his share. He afterwards had some misunderstanding with him. He considered the patent of Cowles & Fogg's [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] for this matter, and thinks no money was paid for obtaining the appropriation.

The Extradition Question still Unsettled

Washington, April [illegible].—No reply from England has yet been received to Fish's [illegible] earnestly protesting against the course of the British government in refusing to return Winslow.

The Canadian government, however, raises no questions to its power under British law and returns fugitives. This precedent will be a valuable precedent.

Caucus of Republican Senators.

The Republican senators [illegible] caucus to-day to arrange the order of business, [illegible] likely to be affected by the coming [illegible] [illegible]. The [illegible] was considered, [illegible] but no action on any point. Among other subjects brought forward was the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the total repeal of the bankrupt law. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to be in favor of amending it, but there was a great diversity of opinion concerning the character of the amendments needed.

The question whether the steamship [illegible] be transferred by the Pacific Mail Co. to the Japanese did not involve the change of nationality, has been decided by the solicitor general. The Secret Service Fund.

The Bulletin's Washington special says the Cambell committee sent to the Treasury department to-day and secured the [illegible] in which the secret service accounts were [illegible] [illegible] figures show that in 1873 alone there were expended over $[illegible],000 in Grant's behalf instead of Sebor. The Times Washington special says that in the appropriation for secret service funds the money was absolutely within the control of the Attorney General. There was thought to be clearly unjustifiable looseness in the disbursements since the only vouchers preserved are the receipts of Whitley. If gross sums of money have been improperly expended in New York, the responsibility must fall on the Attorney General. Davenport's testimony puts the President's action in a new and more favorable light.

The Indian Transfer Bill.

The Tribune's Washington special, analyzing the voting on the Indian transfer bill, says most of the Republicans voted no, and one of the sturdiest negatives was Cox. The vote which was taken was therefore not of a partisan character and may be taken as a condemnation of the peace policy.

Complaint about Possession of Postal Records.

Jewell to-day made a formal demand upon Stone, chairman of the committee on postoffice expenditures, for a return of the official records lately furnished them, but the law makes the heads of departments responsible for the custody of public records and provides that certified copies may be legal evidence. The House cannot annul the law. [illegible] Stone refused to accede.

Pacific Railroad Matters.

The House Committee on Railroads to-day resumed the consideration of the Senate bill to extend the time for the completing the Northern Pacific Railroad, and of the proposition offered by Throckmorton as an amendment to extend the time also for the Texas Pacific company. A letter was submitted addressed to the chairman by C. P. CONGRESSIONAL.

House.

Washington, April 21.—Knott introduced a bill to regulate the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus in certain cases. Referred to the judiciary committee. It provides that the supreme court shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction to issue the writ of habeas corpus in all cases where the party shall be detained or restrained of his liberty by authority or under an order of either house of Congress, that whenever it shall appear by the petition that the party is detained or restrained of his liberty by either house of Congress, before any State or U. S. judge or court other than the supreme court of the United States, the writ shall be denied if not issued, or dismissed if issued; that if any such State or U. The bill for transferring the Indian bureau to the war department passed—1[illegible]9 to 98. Adjourned.

Washington, April 22.

Faulkner from the committee on foreign affairs reported a bill in regard to citizenship and defines certain rights of U. S. citizens in foreign countries and foreign duties of diplomatic and consular officers. He proceeded to address the House in explanation and in advocacy of it.

Cox offered a substitute and said he would have his argument printed in the Record, and the House, after reading the bill and substitute and argument, would be able to vote intelligently.

[illegible] objected to the sections of the bill which permitted aliens to hold real estate in this country, and which provides how marriages in foreign countries between U. S. citizens and aliens shall be contracted and solemnized. The further consideration of the bill was postponed until Wednesday next, and the House took up the bill reported back by Douglass, chairman of the committee on the Freedman's bank, to amend the charter of that institution.

Douglass said he did not care to address the House, but would yield the floor to his colleague.

Burchard offered a substitute for the first three sections. The substitute requires the secretary of the treasury to appoint a good and competent man to take charge of and manage the affairs of the bank. The secretary is to retain a general supervision of this commissioner. It differs from the bill of the committee in this respect, that the latter only provides for the appointment of a single commissioner in case of death or resignation of each of the present three commissioners. Bradford addressed the House, insisting that the action on the subject was due to the sixty odd thousand depositors of the Freedman's bank, who were principally colored men living in the Southern States, that it was a duty which Congress ought not longer to shirk, particularly in view of the fact that Congress was to some extent responsible for the losses of depositors. He traced the downfall of the Bank to that amendment of its charter which permitted the bank to make loans on real estate surety, instead of as before on United States bonds. Without action on the bill the House adjourned after Stevenson introduced a bill to abolish the board of health of the District of Columbia.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

Jackson County People's Convention.

[illegible]

[illegible] of the A. & P. telegraph office of this city, walked eight miles in the quick time of 1 [illegible] 2 hours and [illegible] minutes at Agricultural Park to-day, on a wager [illegible] that he could not accomplish that distance inside of two hours. As the day was very warm he did not care to make the best time he could, but says he is open for challenge from any pedestrian that may choose to make trial of speed and endurance.

OREGON.

The farmers of Yoncalla are [illegible] grain [illegible]

All the rivers of Oregon were on a tremendous [illegible] last week.

The Columbia river at the Dalles is coming up rapidly at the rate of about two feet in 24 hours.

The Eclectic Base Ball Club of Linn and Lane counties will compete for the prize medals at Portland during the centennial week.

Next Wednesday the fifty-seventh anniversary of Odd Fellowship will be celebrated in due style, we are informed, by Spencer Butte Lodge, No. 9.

The delegates from Douglas county to the Republican State convention are A. Applegate, A. Bashey, W. H. Byars, J. B. Emery, A. Myers, Jas. Wright, J. Jackson.

It is the intention of the Odd Fellows living in the vicinity of North Yamhill to shortly ask the consent of the lodge at Lafayette to organize a lodge at the former place.

W. D. Pittinger and T. B. Handley were elected representatives from Montezuma Lodge, No. 51, I. O. O. F., of Hillsboro, to attend the next session of the Grand Lodge, at Salem.

The Douglas County Democratic Convention elected the following delegates to the State Convention: Jas. Richards, A. A. Fink, Geo. Dement, W. K. Caldwell, James M. Dillard and John W. Pride.

On Sunday, the 9th inst., three elk passed leisurely along through the suburbs of Astoria, feeding as they passed, and occasionally raising their heads to survey the situation, in plain view of the townsfolk.

From a private letter the [illegible] learns that Cassius McPherson, son of A. W. McPherson, former State printer, who is now employed by the Esther Mining Company on Grave creek, fell into the fire in a fit and was dangerously burned.

Last week eighteen head of beef cattle were shipped from the Dalles to Port Townsend. They were the finest lot of beef cattle we ever remember; total weight being [illegible] and average weight 1,12[illegible] pounds. The lot were from Umatilla county.

Wm. Bowman would like to know the whereabouts of Hester Dawson, formerly Hester Bowman. When last heard from she was in Missouri. It would be to her advantage to let her whereabouts be known. Address, Wm. Bowman, Dallas, Polk county, Oregon.

The Democratic county convention of Clatsop met in Astoria on Thursday and nominated a full ticket. Rev. Mr. Franklin for the Assembly, Thomas Dealey for sheriff, W. L. Worthington for assessor, Rev. Mr. Hyland for school superintendent, Dan Lowell for clerk, John Hobson and John Loomis for commissioners.

The Plaindealer learns from parties, who live down near the mouth of the Umpqua river, that during the freshet last week, rafts containing more than 1,200 logs were washed adrift, and that probably more than half the logs went over the bar into the ocean. This involves a most serious loss to men who have been toiling for years to make a stake.

A meeting of the teachers of the Fifth Judicial District will be held on Wednesday, 26th instant, at 11 o'clock A. M., at the district school house in the Dalles, for the purpose of making the preliminary arrangements for a Teachers' Institute to be held in Dalles City some time in June next. Dr. L. L. Rowland, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, will be present.

The Cultivator says the farmers of Lane county are now agitating the question of constructing a canal from Eugene City, via the Spencer Butte swale, to Junction City, which, if done, will drain and greatly enhance the value of the lands in the vicinity, and at the same time give the farmers cheaper transportation for their grain and an excellent water power for milling purposes.

E. L. Hussey, who came over from Tillamook last week, informs the Courier that there is about eight feet of snow, for six miles, in the mountains, and that there is considerable difficulty in traveling. He says that there has been an unprecedented amount of stormy weather in Tillamook this winter, but that the general health of the citizens has been very good.

The following is the Democratic ticket in Douglas county: Senators, M. Dean, James C. Hutchinson; representatives, James H. Bean, Wm. D. McGee, Wm. P. Day and Wm. R. Smith; county clerk, Jas. M. Dillard; sheriff, I. F. Rice; treasurer, Wm. T. Wright; county commissioners, Jas. Stark, John Stewart; school superintendent, Geo. Grubbe; assessor, R. A. Raper; surveyor, S. S. Halpain; coroner, Jas. G. Clark.

The Odd Fellows of Washington county are to have a railroad excursion to St. Joe on Wednesday, to unite with the fraternity of Yamhill in celebrating their 57th anniversary. The O. & C. R. R. Co. has kindly furnished an extra train to leave Portland in the morning and return in the evening, at half the usual rates of fare. Members of the order in Portland, East Portland and along the line, are cordially invited to join in the occasion.

On Thursday, of last week, while out hunting near Dallas, Leonard Livermore met with a very painful accident. He and Wm. Cook were going through the brush, Cook in the rear, when the latter's gun went off owing to the hammer being caught in the brush, the ball entering Mr. Livermore's hand at the root of the thumb. Dr. Grubbs was sent for, who found it necessary to extract two bones of the right one carpal and one metacarpal which had been somewhat fractured by the ball. The thumb will be disabled for any effective service, though none of the leaders or muscles are injured.

There is a gentleman aged 84 years living on Pine creek, Wasco county, who has been married five times and has 20 children, is hale and hearty, and bids fair to live 20 or 30 years longer, and have two or three more wives. He raises stock of all kinds, also grain, vegetables, and everything his family consume, and when he wants a mess of venison he and some of his boys take their guns and hounds, go to the mountains and soon bag a fat buck or two and bring them home in triumph. He, the patriarch, not the buck, has a lathe mill and grinds his own grain, his women spin and weave, and make their own clothing, [illegible] In short, the old fellow is very independent, contented and happy.

[illegible] OREGON'S RAIL- [illegible] GRANT.

[illegible] a few days there has [illegible] that the [illegible] were got to change [illegible] that the return of a [illegible] misappreciate [illegible] instead and derided [illegible] Mr. Holladay's connec[illegible] the State should [illegible] the people. It is just [illegible] for the injury [illegible] State should be had [illegible] those who carried [illegible] shall be rejoicing [illegible] complete than his [illegible] long time the career [illegible] hand. But at last [illegible] his power, [illegible] which he concealed his [illegible] financially, [illegible] to his true level. [illegible] he owes this utter [illegible] Few men ever [illegible] and no one [illegible] abused his trust [illegible] He is a career that [illegible] it may not greatly [illegible]

[illegible] we have spoken of [illegible] he operated the [illegible] period of his power, [illegible] of his persistent [illegible]. Before he is dis[illegible] public attention to [illegible] as often glibly ac[illegible] for such a career, [illegible] facts connected with [illegible] and his manage[illegible] of the roads, [illegible] not be well aware [illegible] ought to be [illegible], his frauds and [illegible] people of Oregon feel [illegible] likely to feel them for[illegible]. Not to have [illegible] with the other States [illegible] which our people [illegible] never felt it so se[illegible] is, therefore, a fit [illegible]; our people owe [illegible] to forget how they [illegible] and outraged, and [illegible] the State, has been [illegible]

[illegible] to Oregon with the [illegible] great wealth and [illegible] spirit. It was a [illegible] steadily employed such [illegible] calculated to impress the [illegible] of an immense [illegible] withheld himself [illegible] except on such occa[illegible] most fit to show him[illegible] the common people [illegible] admiration as the [illegible] magnificence, passed [illegible] overwhelmed with debt [illegible] with nothing to [illegible] talking familiarly [illegible] proprietor of nothing [illegible] and unscrupu[illegible], shortly after, his [illegible] the State, he went to [illegible] legislature the land [illegible] made for the con[illegible] to California. At [illegible] money to pay the [illegible] house he established [illegible] fees of his lobbyists; [illegible] dollars used in this [illegible] and subsequently re[illegible] contrivance and anoth[illegible] out of the railway [illegible] of which he obli[illegible] designated by the leg[illegible] grant, and the pos[illegible] showing the man, were [illegible] of a through rail[illegible] were issued on the [illegible]. On these bonds [illegible] seven million dollars. [illegible] Here was a sum am[illegible] the road from Port[illegible] line of the State, [illegible] with their money [illegible] no idea but that the [illegible]. On this supposi[illegible] were floated. But it [illegible] by unquestionable [illegible] more than half this [illegible] expended in the con[illegible]. The balance was [illegible] by those into [illegible]. A sum that [illegible] but little less [illegible] dollars was misap[illegible] way with. Holladay [illegible] salary; he, as man[illegible] company, contracted [illegible] he was a member for [illegible] profitable margins, he [illegible] low rates and tran[illegible] figures to the rail[illegible] the purpose of bolster[illegible] and [illegible] his [illegible] the world he started a [illegible], first and last, [illegible] hundred and twenty thou[illegible] squandered immense [illegible] of politics, paying [illegible] twenty thousand dollars [illegible] a Portland, [illegible] may remark in pass[illegible] "Mitchell" is the fruit, [illegible] of the most vulgar [illegible], which he was, [illegible] by any [illegible] at an expense of [illegible] dollars. He tried to [illegible] [illegible] money when he [illegible] difficult [illegible] [illegible] of [illegible] that we [illegible] are now [illegible] necessity of taking [illegible] limit of endurance [illegible] being without one [illegible] Oregon and been built [illegible] have met it

[illegible] property. We owe it, therefore, to Mr. Holladay that we have [illegible]. The re[illegible] sources placed at the disposal of the State by the general government were diverted from their object and [illegible]. An unscrupulous adventurer destroyed [illegible] for purposes of his own. The de[illegible] of [illegible] into which the authors of [illegible] [illegible] that the State owes the [illegible] [illegible] of this obligation [illegible] the money [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the State.

Of this course of unblushing [illegible] and fraud, whereby the people of Oregon have been robbed of millions of money which, in honest hands, would have completed their railway and estab[illegible] the prosperity of their State, Mr. "Mitchell" was from the first the legal [illegible] and ready instrument. As a law[illegible] he helped to organize and perpetrate the robbery; as a senator he is a product of it. As he rose to temporary fortune through the success of this iniquity, so as it fails he falls with it. The constitution and habits of "Mitchell's" mind naturally fall in with and conform to Holladay's ways and methods. Never were two cras[illegible] more exactly the complement of each other, each supplying what the other lacks. "Mitchell" has always had an unconquerable ambition for political distinction, which his own resources or cunning, trickery, chicanery and corruption, considerable as they are, could never enable him to gratify; but by combining his resources with those of Holladay the two converting to their joint uses and schemes a large share of the money belonging to the State for the construction of its railways, "Mitchell" succeeded, or seemed to succeed, but only to fall at once beyond hope of recovery, and to bring ineffaceable shame on himself and humilia[illegible] on those who supported him; while Holladay, after living riotously for some years upon the booty he found in the State's stolen millions, is now reduced to that [illegible] extremity of exhausted finances which always and surely over[illegible] such things at last. When the public is put in possession of all the facts connected with this colossal swindle (and we trust this will yet be done) no words that we have written will be thought too se[illegible] or even severe enough, for the con[illegible] demnation of those on whom this guilt chiefly rests. To write these things is not an agreeable task, but it becomes neces[illegible] sary in the discharge of a public duty; nor can the parties who have perpetrated this great wrong on Oregon escape on the plea that these transactions are solely their own business and concern only themselves. The money they have filched and squandered belonged to the State, and came to it for a specific purpose from the general government. Nor is it all that we have been cheated out of the road to which we were entitled and which the government furnished means to build. An incredible sum drawn from this subsidy, by Holladay's own confession two hundred thousand dollars (and we have means of knowing this is no exaggeration) was used to debauch the people and to corrupt the very fountains of political power. Not for years will the State recover from the blighting effects of these corruptions.

It will be gratifying to Oregonians to learn that the fine ship [illegible], built at Coos Bay by Messrs. Simpson Bros., not only beat her competitor, the [illegible], in a race from the Columbia bar to Liverpool nineteen days, but that she also made the quickest voyage from this coast to Liverpool on record. The time of the [illegible] in the Columbia river to Liverpool is stated to be one hundred and two days. The shortest trip previously ever made was one hundred and eight days from San Francisco, a point at least two days' sail nearer Liverpool than which it would appear that the [illegible] voyage is the best by eight days ever made [illegible] Oregon.

The Trenton campmeeting ground, which has just been seriously injured by fire, is the place where the Centennial model campmeeting was to have been held this summer. It is specially unfortunate that this accident should have occurred this season, as it will probably put a stop to the meeting there, which would undoubtedly have been very numerously attended by strangers from different parts of the United States and Europe.

Bay Eagle, the colt Mr. Sanford had entered for the English Derby, having thrown [illegible] a curb, has been scratched, and America will have no representative in that race. But even if Bay Eagle had started it is hardly likely he could have won the blue ribbon, as he would have met the very finest colts in England, and among them Petrarch, who is said to be one of the best racers that has ever appeared on the English turf.

The most reliable reports from the Black Hills seem to show that the richness of that region, in gold and silver, has been much exaggerated. There is gold there in considerable quantity, no doubt, but the diggings are by no means so profitable as at first stated. Notwithstanding this, however, the rush thither is as great as ever, and Cheyenne is crowded with strangers preparing to start for the new Eldorado.

The impeachment managers have issued subpoenas for some of the witnesses who will be examined during the trial of Mr. Belknap. This indicates that the managers anticipate the overruling of the demurrer [illegible] by the Senate. It is, however, by no means certain that the Senate will do this, as the legal question involved is one about which all are not agreed.

Turkey believes that the coalition between the Emperors of Germany, Austria and Russia was about to be broken up [illegible] [illegible] between the Porte and the [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] reports that Mr. Bradley [illegible] on his way to Washington to receive [illegible] of the alleged frauds in the Treasury Department, which are now being investigated. The testimony he will give is said to [illegible] the [illegible] of ex-Secretary Bristow.

OREGON'S RAIL[ROA]D GRANT

ast few days there has of suspicion that the n were not to change that the rumors of a put into circulation by misled and defraud gon But it is now set ion of everybody that fixed fact and his ex d withdrawal is an oc ratification

Mr Holladay's connec ays of this State should y the people It is just bility for the injury it State should be laid rs of those who caused e past shall be remem ing for the future No more complete than his long time he carried it hand but t last he is f his power stripped hich he concealed his ollapsed financially, an to his true level lly he owes this utter ilure Few men ever rtunity and no one ly abused his trust or His is a career that gh it may not greatly

s we have spoken of ich he operated the period of his power ults of his persistent Before he is dis n public attention to is often gladly su fuge for such a career, facts connected with on and his manage uction of the roads ay not be well aware gotten, ought to be re llies, his frauds and people of Oregon feel ikely to feel them for Not to have rail with the other States which our people are ney never felt it so se us, therefore, is a fit past, our people owe to forget how they d and outraged, and of the State has been

e to Oregon with the sing great wealth and pirit It was a fictitious teadily employed such culated to impress the of an immense opu lly withheld himself except on such occa most fit to show him the common people h admiration as the magnificence, passed rwhelmed with debt aturer with nothing to igg talking familiarly proprietor of nothing rance and unscrupu 868, shortly after his the State he went to legislature the land en made for the con ay to California At ot money to pay the house he established fees of his lobbyists, d dollars used in this and subsequently re ontrivance and anoth ken out of the railway ny of which he ob designated by the leg e grant, and the peo owing the man, were pect of a through rail were issued on the ant On these bonds even million dollars Here was a sum am d the road from Port rn line of the State ed with their money no idea but that the gh. On this supposi were floated But it by unquestionable more than half this expended in the con d. The balance was ered by those into ame A sum that n but little less dollars was misap way with Holladay, at salary he, as man company, contracted he was a member for ofitable margins he t low rates and trans ous figures to the rail the purpose of bolster ring and parading his the world he started a unk, first and last no dred and twenty thou squandered immense ion of politics paying wenty thousand dollars mary in Portland, of may remark in pass Mitchell" is the fruit, of the most vulgar pro age tuce, which he was t by any means legiti mand, at an expense of sand dollars, he tried to lishment at the seaside are only a part of his ng no money when he it is not difficult to form ow he obtained the vast shly squandered The railway from Portland ot more than three mil a road could be built sum It is because the ons derived from the abbed outright that we onnections and are now ecessity of taxing our t limit of endurance to ing with [illegible] Oregon [illegible] built [illegible]

promptly We owe it therefore, to Mr Holladay that we have no road The re sources placed at the disposal of the State by the general government were diverted from their object and misappropriated An unscrupulous adventurer destroyed both our fortunes and his own The de served obscurity into which the author of this iniquity has fallen will not cause our people to forget at once, nor for a long time to come that the State owes the dis advantages of its position, the retardation of its growth and the disgrace of its credit to his disregard of its interests and to the appropriation by him and others of a large part of the money rightfully belonging to the State

Of this course of malfeasance crooked ness and fraud whereby the people of Or egon have been robbed of millions of money which, in honest hands would have completed their railways and estab lished the prosperity of their State Mr "Mitchell" was from the first the legal adviser and ready instrument As a law yer he helped to organize and perpetuate the robbery as a Senator he is a product of it As he rose to temporary fortune through the success of this iniquity, so as it fails he falls with it The constitution and habits of "Mitchell's" mind natural ly fall in with and conform to Holladay's ways and methods Never were two ras cals more exactly the complement of each other, each supplying what the other lacks "Mitchell" has always had an unquenchable ambition for political distinction, which his own resources in cunning, trickery, chicanery and corrup tion considerable as they are, could never enable him to gratify, but by combining his resources with those of Holladay—the two converting to their joint uses and schemes a large share of the money be longing to the State for the construction of its railways—"Mitchell" succeeded or seemed to succeed, but only to fall at once beyond hope of recovery, and to bring in effaceable shame on himself and humilia tion on those who supported him while Holladay, after living riotously for some years upon the booty he found in the State's stolen millions, is now reduced to that pitiable extremity of exhausted finances which always and surely over takes profligacy at last When the pub lic is put in possession of all the facts con nected with this colossal swindle—and we trust this will yet be done—no words that we have written will be thought too se vere, or even severe enough, for the con demnation of those on whom this guilt chiefly rests To write these things is not an agreeable task, but it becomes neces sary in the discharge of a public duty, nor can the parties who have perpetrated this great wrong on Oregon escape on the plea that these transactions are solely their own business and concern only themselves The money they have filched and squandered belonged to the State, and came to it for a specific purpose from the general government Nor is it all that we have been cheated out of the road to which we were entitled and which the government furnished means to build An incredible sum drawn from this subsidy, by Holladay's own confession two hun dred thousand dollars (and we have means of knowing this is no exaggeration) was used to debauch the people and to corrupt the very fountains of political power Not for years will the State recover from the blighting effects of these corruptions

It will be gratifying to Oregonians to learn that the fine ship Western Shore, built at Coos Bay by Messrs Simpson Bros, not only beat her competitor the Carnarvon Castle in a race from the Columbia bar to Liverpool nineteen days, but that she also made the quickest voyage from this coast to Liverpool on record The time of the Western Shore from the Colum bia river to Liverpool is stated to be one hun dred and two days The shortest trip pre viously ever made was one hundred and eight days from San Francisco a point at least two days sail nearer Liverpool from which it would appear that the Western Shore's voyage is the best by eight days ever made Rah for Oregon

The Tarentum campmeeting ground, which has just been seriously injured by fire, is the place where the Centennial model campmeet ing was to have been held this summer. It is specially unfortunate that this accident should have occurred this season, as it will probably put a stop to the meeting there, which would undoubtedly have been very numerously at tended by strangers from different parts of the United States and Europe

Bay Eagle, the colt Mr Sanford had entered for the English Derby, having thrown out a curb, has been scratched and America will have no representative in that race But even if Bay Eagle had started it is hardly likely he could have won the blue ribbon as he would have met the very finest colts in England and among them Petrarch who is said to be one of the best racers that has ever appeared on the English turf

The most reliable reports from the Black Hills seem to show that the richness of that region, in gold and silver has been much ex aggerated. There is gold there in considerable quantity, no doubt but the diggings are by no means so profitable as at first stated Not withstanding this, however, the rush thither is as great as ever and Cheyenne is crowded with strangers preparing to start for the new Eldorado

The impeachment managers have issued subpenas for some of the witnesses who will be examined during the trial of Mr Belknap This indicates that the managers anticipate the overruling of the defendant's plea by the Senate, it is, however, by no means certain that the Senate will do this as the legal ques tion involved is one about which all are not agreed

Turkey, believing that the coalition be tween the Emperors of Germany, Austria and Russia, was about to be broken up declined to enter into negotiations for the settlement of the differences between the Porte and the in surgents Turkey may be as reluctant as pos sible to yield to the suggestion of the great powers but she will have either to do so or be ruined

It is reported that Mr Prindle is on his way to Washington to testify concerning the al leged frauds in the Treasury Department, which are now being investigated The testi mony he will give is said to seriously affect the character of ex Secretary Boutwell

DEATH OF MR E D BACKENSTOS.

In our obituary notices to-day will be found recorded the death of our esteemed citizen Mr E D Backenstos Edwin Douglas Backenstos was born in Springfield Illinois in 1841 His father, Col J B Backenstos of the U S A was an officer in the Mounted Rifles—now 3d Cavalry of the regular army,—and won two brevets in the war with Mexico Col Backenstos came with his command to Oregon in 1849 accompanied by his family, Edwin being his eldest son A few months after his father's death in 18[illegible] Edwin received an appointment as cadet at West Point, but an unfortunate accident resulting in the loss of his right hand prevented him from accepting it Mr Backenstos has had from an early day a large share of the care of his orphan brother and sister and has won the respect and esteem of all who knew him by the manner in which he has discharged that trust.

Although it was well known that deceased had been ailing for some time yet in common with his many friends we were quite unprepared to hear of his decease Yesterday however, his illness—pleura pneumonia—assumed an unfavorable turn, and notwithstanding every effort which skill and kindness could suggest he quietly passed away at [illegible] o clock last evening As a citizen, Mr Backenstos merited and received the respect and confidence of the community by his promptness honesty and integrity As a friend he was agreeable cheerful and obliging and as a man open hearted open spoken and charitable The estimation in which he was held by the business community and his fellow townsmen is evidenced by the private as well as official positions which he filled and whether regarded as clerk in one of our banks as general agent of one of the leading insurance companies or as city treasurer of Portland he brought to the discharge of his duties capability energy and honesty

Mr Backenstos was an honored member of Hassalo Lodge I O O F, Ellison Encampment, an exempt member of Vigilance Hook and Ladder Company, also a member of the Exempt Firemen's Association For several years he served as a member of the Board of Delegates of the Portland Fire Department and for one year filled the position of President of that body He filled very acceptably the office of City Treasurer for two terms May the clods of the valley rest lightly on his bosom

THE TURF

Jas J Welch arrived here Saturday evening from Walla Walla bringing down the horses—young Snow Storm Belle of Portland and Chief Coggan a nimble footed animal Osceola also came down These animals will go into training at once at the East Portland track for the Centennial races Osceola will be under the well known trainer Billy Leigh who arrived here on the last steamer and the other horses named will be under the management of Jimmy Welch the experienced trainer

As some dissatisfaction is felt and has been expressed in view of the probability of S G Reed's grey gelding recently brought from San Francisco and Bunker's horse Lewiston entering for the $600 purse offered by the Centennial committee for the trotting match open to horses whose record shows that they have made their mile in 2 40 we understand that these animals will not be permitted to enter for the race So that there may be no misunderstanding on this point we make the announcement thus early in the day.

MAIL IRREGULARITIES

Our regular correspondent at Kalama writing from that point under date of the 22d inst says

Mail matters on the route between here and San Francisco need investigating badly Our San Francisco weekly papers come very irregularly and we only get about one half of the dailies and many of them are so old as to be worthless when they arrive A great many times our California papers pass through here, go down the Sound and then come back. Sometimes it looks as if the newspaper mail for Washington Territory was all tumbled together and sent to Puget Sound to be distributed The frequent changing of route agents is another bad thing as every new man makes a lot of mistakes before he learns the route We are patient sufferers but we are getting tired of these things and hope that the spirit of reform that is pervading other departments of the public service may shed its benign influence over our postal agent and his subordinates and correct the evils herein complained of

"NEW DEPARTURE

In the Medical treatment of Special Diseases is in placing in the hands of the sufferer the Cure and Prevention There seems to be no doubt in the minds of any one of the merits of the Wightman Process' for the cure of Hemorrhoids and Piles. The letters of Mr J M Bacon P M of Oregon City Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of I O O F and others leaves nothing for me to add I am not an O F and am too old for admission Mr Bacon out of sympathy for those still rung as he had and out of pure kindness of heart wrote his letter not for publication. The position he occupies shows he is justly appreciated by his associates I would not use the name of any one were I not positively sure of perfect satisfaction to those that use the process They know the Piles cannot return as they have the instructions and Prevention on hand in the Process and Directions to always prevent them

GEO H CHANCE J WELCH
CHANCE & WELCH,
Dentists,

TO TAXPAYERS DISTRICT NO 1, MULTNOMAH COUNTY, OREGON

[illegible]—I deem it my duty to make the following plain statement of facts viz In April 1871 I was elected clerk of school district No 1 Upon attempting to assume the duties of said office I found the affairs of the district in utter chaos and bankruptcy—the liabilities about $2,000 and no assets except about $6,000 of delinquent taxes for the years 1868, [illegible] and [illegible] which had been utterly neglected not even a delinquent roll for either year having been made out I would state here that after several days effort to obtain possession of the books, papers and effects of the district from my predecessor and failing in which I applied to the board of directors for written authority which I obtained and presented to the former clerk who appointed a time and place to deliver but failed to appear I forbear to give a history of the results that followed other than to state that after much trouble and research I succeeded in finding most of the books and papers but not a dollar of money From these books and papers I found that there was a defalcation of over $3,000

The law made it my duty to institute suit against the bondsmen Only one of the three bondsmen by said clerk could be found upon this one after much trouble delay and expense I obtained a judgment [illegible] $3,000 [illegible] I also collected from the detective about $[illegible] which he found on the person of the clerk at the time of his arrest It also became necessary to prosecute a criminal suit which also caused very much extra labor and expense. Meanwhile I had received from the board of directors a warrant commanding me to collect the three years delinquent tax by distraint and sale which required much extra time and labor These together with a vast amount of extraordinary labor caused by the confused condition of the business of the district made it necessary for me to abandon my entire private business and income therefrom causing a loss to myself of at least $1,500 Thus devoting my time and energies with the assistance and financial skill of the honorable board of directors I was enabled to pay the entire indebtedness of the district and the current expenses of the year etc leaving a balance in the treasury of between $4 000 and $5 000 In consequence of the above facts it was impossible for me to make the assessment roll or to take the census of the district I therefore with the advice and consent of the directors employed the county assessor John D [illegible] to make the tax roll I also employed other parties to assist me in taking the census for both these items the district has been accustomed to pay back to the clerk whether he performed the labor himself or employed others to do it for him For the roll and census I paid $300 and for extra clerical and other expenses I paid $146 making $446 for which sum I was reimbursed by the district. My commissions amounted to $1 197 50, which sum but for the extraordinary circumstances, would have been ample compensation

Clerk s commission		$1 197 50
Cash paid for tax roll and census	$300
Cash paid for clerical and other expenses	146 —	446 00
		$1 643 50
By cash reimbursed		446 00
Net amount received by clerk		$1 197 50

As I was compelled to give up my business amounting to $1 500 a year (which I would not have been obliged to do except for the condition of the affairs of the district) on the impression that I would be paid for the extra labor—and really have not been—it is easy to see that the actual result to myself was simply the loss of my business and nothing for my extra labor

I am led to make the above statement in consequence of an impression upon the minds of some of my friends that I had made an exorbitant and unreasonable request in having asked the district for extra compensation of $800 which the district declined to grant in consequence (as I believe) of a misunderstanding of the facts

It is not my intention to ever again ask the district for the money but I have given these facts and figures in justice to myself to show the reasons of my asking to be compensated for extra labor lasting through a whole year and which I could not estimate at less than $800 Respectfully J D HOLMAN

The fair beneficiary was warmly welcomed, and received [illegible] beautiful bouquets and baskets of flowers. For several years he served as a member of the Board of Delegates of the Portland Fire Department, and for one year filled the position of President of that body. Fifty-seventh anniversary of the introduction of Odd Fellowship into the United States next Wednesday.

Gen. O. O. Howard and Capt. M. P. Wilkes [illegible] on an inspecting tour last Saturday to Fort Lapwai.

It is a noteworthy fact that there was not a single proxy at the Democratic county convention held last Saturday.

A lamp explosion at the [illegible] hotel Saturday was the occasion of a fire alarm. No damage worthy of mention.

Mr. Bessie, who for a number of years was [illegible] in this city, is at present lying at St. Vincent's Hospital quite low with pneumonia.

A finer view of Portland, East Portland and their surroundings can not be had than from the Park beyond the western suburbs of the city.

Myrtie Morrill, the little girl who wandered from her home Friday afternoon, was found late on the evening of that day near the top of Robinson Hill.

There will be a special meeting of the Exempt Firemen's Association this evening in consequence of the death of Mr. E. D. Backenstos, who was a member of that body. A full attendance is desired.

Mr. Sam Burcheim returned on the last steamer from a protracted visit to Philadelphia. "Sam" drove an express wagon in this city for some years, and is one of No. 2's most active and efficient boys. His old friends are gratified to see him again in a good state of preservation.

THE TURF.

Jas. J. Welch arrived here Saturday evening from Walla Walla, bringing down the horses young Snow Storm, Belle of Portland and Chief. Cogsan's [illegible] annual Osceola also came down. These [illegible] will go into training at once at the East Portland track for the centennial races. Osceola will be under the well known trainer Billy Leach, who arrived here on the last steamer, and the other horses named will be under the management of Jimmy Welch, the experienced trainer.

MAIL IRREGULARITIES.

Our regular correspondent at Kalama writes from that point under date of the [illegible] days [illegible]

Mail matters on the route between here and San Francisco need investigating badly. Our San Francisco weekly papers come very irregularly and we only get about one-half of the dailies, and many of them are so old as to be worthless when they arrive. A great many times our California papers pass through here, go down the Sound and then come back. Sometimes it looks as if the newspaper mail for Washington Territory was all jumbled together and sent to Puget Sound to be distributed. The frequent changing of route agents is another drawback, as every new man makes a lot of mistakes before he learns the route. We are patient, but we are getting tired of these things, and hope that the spirit of reform that is pervading other departments of the postal service may shed its benign influence over our postal agent and [illegible] and correct the evils [illegible] complained of.

PRAYER AND POTATOES

"If a brother and sister be naked and destitute of daily food, and one of you say unto them Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body, what doth it profit?"—James 2 15 16

An old lady sat in her old arm chair,
With wrinkled visage and disheveled hair,
And hunger-worn features;
For days and for weeks her only fare,
As she sat there in her old arm-chair,
Had been potatoes.

But now they were gone; of bad or good
Not one was left for the old lady's food
Of those potatoes;
And she sighed and said, "What shall I do?
Where shall I send, and to whom shall I go
For more potatoes?"

And she thought of the deacon over the way,
The deacon so ready to worship and pray,
Whose cellar was full of potatoes;
And she said: "I will send for the deacon to come;
He'll not mind much to give me some
Of such a store of potatoes."

And the deacon came over as fast as he could,
Thinking to do the old lady some good,
But never once of potatoes;
He asked her at once what was her chief want,
And she, simple soul, expecting a grant,
Immediately answered, "Potatoes."

But the deacon's religion didn't lie that way;
He was more accustomed to preach and pray
Than to give his hoarded potatoes;
So, not hearing, of course, what the old lady said,
He rose to pray with uncovered head,
But she only thought of potatoes.

He prayed for patience, goodness and grace,
And when he prayed, "Lord, give her peace,"
She audibly sighed—"Give potatoes";
And at the end of each prayer which he said,
He heard, or thought he heard in its stead,
The same request for potatoes.

The deacon was troubled—knew not what to do,
'Twas very embarrassing to have her act so
About those carnal potatoes;
So, ending his prayers, he started for home,
As the door closed behind, he heard a deep groan,
"Oh, give to the hungry, potatoes!"

And that groan followed him all the way home,
In the midst of the night it haunted his room,
"Oh, give to the hungry, potatoes!"
He could bear it no longer; arose and dressed,
From his well filled cellar taking, in haste,
A bag of his best potatoes.

Again he went to the widow's lone hut;
Her sleepless eyes she had not shut,
But there she sat in her old arm-chair,
With the same wan features, same wan air,
And, entering in, he poured on the floor
A bushel or more from his goodly store
Of choicest potatoes.

The widow's heart leaped up for joy,
Her face was haggard and pale no more,
"Now," said the deacon, "shall we pray?"
"Yes," said the widow, "now you may."
And he knelt him down on the sanded floor,
Where he had poured out his goodly store,
And such a prayer the deacon prayed,
As never before his lips essayed;
No longer embarrassed, but free and full,
He poured out the voice of a liberal soul,
And the widow responded a loud "Amen!"
But said no more of potatoes.

And would you hear this simple tale
Pray for the poor, and praying "prevail?"
Then preface your prayers with alms and good deeds,
Search out the poor, their wants and needs,
Pray for their peace and grace, spiritual food,
Wisdom and guidance, all these are good,
But don't forget the potatoes!

A NOVEL SPECTACLE

GENERAL NELSON'S DIVISION CROSSED DUCK RIVER—AN INCIDENT OF THE MARCH ON SHILOH.

[From the Chicago Tribune.]

A story of "Carson, the Scout," published in the Tribune, recalls another incident of Gen Buell's march toward Shiloh, which has to my knowledge, found place in any history of the war, and yet it has an important bearing on the result of the battle of Shiloh.

General William Nelson commanded the Fourth Division of Buell's army. He had been a naval officer and his tyranny and harshness caused his men to dislike him at first, but as the march southward took the troops into the enemy's country, the soldierly qualities and instincts of the old General, as well as his stern sense of duty and pride in his command, won for him respect and a strange sort of feeling that was almost affection.

Nelson was a strict disciplinarian, and always moved, or went into camp or left camp as if in the presence of an enemy. He superintended, early every morning, the formation of line of battle, was on his horse at the first bugle blast, and rode down the line like a hurricane, expecting every man, officer as well as private, to be in his place and ready for duty. Men under this training became unconsciously alert and emphatic in action. It was a standing joke that Nelson's division could "tumble out" quicker than any other. Nelson was particular and exacting as to little things which seemed trifling until the men realized, in their first battle that all had constituted a part of their training for battle. The realization that their commander had seen with clearer vision than they and that he had compelled them to do what was best, caused the men to turn with rare confidence to the Old Stormer and to become rather proud of his oddities and his obtrusive individuality. He was a thorough soldier and was terribly in earnest, and they knew it.

On the march southward from Nashville Buell's advance was delayed by the destruction of the bridge across Duck river. Nelson fretted under the delay, protested against it and finally volunteered to put his division across without a bridge if he were allowed the advance. Permission was given for him to cross, and he issued one of the queerest military orders on record. This was read to the troops in the morning, and was in substance like this: The men will march to the river, fix bayonets and stack arms. They will then take off their pants, blouses and accoutrements, putting all in a bundle, which will be placed on the bayonet. They will then take arms and, with bundles on the bayonets as ordered, will wade the river in their shirts and drawers. Officers will see that there is no confusion and that, on reaching the farther bank, the men dress quickly and march rapidly forward to restore the circulation.

Imagine the looks of 8,000 or 10,000 men as this order was read to them, on a cool, bright spring morning. They marched down to the river; they undressed to their shirts, and, in view of the entire population of Columbia, men, women and children, they with cheers and shouts, and jokes and laughs plunged into the cold water. The scene was ludicrous in the extreme, but in not very many hours the entire division was marching southward. It kept the advance during the interval between that date and the battle of Shiloh.

During the march Nelson was fuming and storming about slowness, and early on the morning of the first attack on Grant's forces at Pittsburg Landing had hurried his troops into line and had marched southward on his own responsibility. Men remember to this day the face of Nelson on that march. His mutterings were of impending danger, and when his ear caught the sound of artillery he urged the men to greater efforts. When Grant's messenger met him, his men were hurrying forward, and, when Carson outlined the situation, Nelson thundered out "We know it, sir, and we are moving. Carry your message to those behind us."

After this the men saw Nelson at his best. He dropped his offensively arrogant manner; he spoke tenderly, almost gushingly of the army in front and of the honor of the old flag; and where his first brigade had crossed the Tennessee and he came on foot (his horse could not be taken in the boat crowded with men) his tones and words were such as to instill a new courage into their hearts, and to call out a new devotion to their bluff old leader. He called the men gentlemen, did not answer once and his ever ready "Go to hell, sir" was forgotten. History tells how the division went into battle and how well they did their duty, but the strong individuality of Nelson, his prescience, energy and readiness, were better illustrated by the crossing of Duck river than by his splendid battle record. He understood the needs of the hour and met them with a rude, imperious emphasis that compelled admiration. Had his men not waded Duck river in their shirts Buell's army would not have been within call to turn the tide at Shiloh.

Master Stuart White, youngest son of Rev. T. B. White, pastor of St. Paul's church of Albany, has been very unfortunate of late. Thursday, of last week while playing [illegible] on a shingle he was holding in his [illegible] end of the shingle entering his [illegible] piercing nearly through the cheek [illegible] and broke his collar [illegible] [illegible] bottle, of [illegible] the

THE TERRITORIES.

The annual election of the Vancouver fire department will be held at the city hall on Monday May 1 1876.

A piece of natural rubber six feet in length by about three feet wide was recently picked up on the coast in the surf near Shoalwater Bay.

About this time last year the mails came into Silver City Idaho on wheels. It will be as late as the first of May this year before the coaches are put on.

A gentleman just from Whitman (W. T.) states that the farmers down there are all as busy as they can be putting in grain, of which more will be raised this year than in any two previous years. Every exertion is being made by the farmers in this direction.

Lieutenant Woods is now on duty at Camp Lyon and formerly citizen of Silver City, [illegible] to the Centennial as the [illegible] accredited army officer from Idaho Territory. Governor Thompson made the selection in accordance with directions from the Secretary of War.

A man named Stevens in [illegible] Dyer's saloon at Seattle became incensed at the proprietor and attempted to shoot him. The ball missed Dyer and went through a partition into the barber shop adjoining, a splinter that was knocked off by the bullet striking a person in the shop on the cheek.

The executive committee of the Clarke County Agricultural and Mechanical Society will meet at the court house in the city of Vancouver on Saturday the 29th day of April, 1876 at 1 o'clock P. M. to take into consideration what steps may be necessary for holding the annual county fair.

At Port Ludlow the last new vessel built in the yard of the Hall Brothers was launched last week, was named the Courser and is this week being rigged. She is a fine craft, and is intended for the Coos Bay coal and lumber trade. Five vessels were at Port Gamble, namely the ships Aurora, Gen. Butler and Jas. Cheston, and barks Rosalie, Sprague and Emerald.

From a reliable source we learn that the agent of the French Lloyds in San Francisco has determined that hereafter vessels built on Puget Sound fir shall be rated as high as those constructed of any other kind of lumber. This intention has been declared after a thorough and satisfactory re-examination of the vessels built of fir within the last five years on the Pacific coast. The conclusion was not hastily reached but was the result of careful investigation.

The somewhat famous "New World" case has again been settled in the district court at Olympia. The suit arose about the movements of the steamer New World. When she was sold by the California S. N. Co., to the Oregon S. N. Co, it was stipulated by a bond of $75,000 that she should not be returned to run in California waters. The O. S. N. Co took the same bond from Hale, Winsor & Co that she should not be run in Oregon or California waters. Later she was sold to Capt. D. B. Finch who soon afterward took her to San Francisco, had her repaired and run her on San Francisco Bay. The California company then sued the Oregon company and recovered judgment, and the Oregon company pursued the same course against Winsor, Hale & Co., and recovered judgment, the latter had endeavored to obtain a like judgment against Capt. Finch. But the jury, without retiring to the jury room, found a verdict for the defendant.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Nanaimo wants to borrow $6,000.

The bark Antioch 365 tons, will, on her arrival at San Francisco from Departure Bay, be chartered to proceed to Burrard Inlet to load lumber for Amoy on private terms.

Mr. J. Lynn of Burrard Inlet, an old resident, and one of the corps of royal engineers, died on Tuesday morning of paralysis. Mr. Lynn has been for some years engaged in farming at the Inlet.
